Please describe why you want to be a mentor.

Tell us why you believe you would be a good support person for a new teacher and how you have assisted new teachers in the past.

In what ways do you consider yourself a model of a continuous learner?

Describe interpersonal or professional skills that demonstrate your ability to build a trusting relationship with a new teacher.

STATEMENT OF COMMITMENT

Being a mentor involves a serious time commitment during the school year. Please be sure you have read and can fulfill the responsibilities listed in this posting.

I have reviewed the mentor responsibilities listed in the posting and I agree to:

Attend monthly mentor trainings, dates to be determined.

Attend one specified session of OTAGS with my mentee, date to be determined.

Attend New Teacher Orientation luncheon on August 22nd 2013 (tentative date)

Participate in weekly professional collaborations with my mentee and log these in My Learning Plan on a regular basis.

Complete non-evaluative observations of the mentee's teaching using an observation protocol to be determined.

Become familiar with the Mentoring in Action text and use it to support and guide the mentee's growth as a teaching professional.

I am willing and available to make this time commitment.
